

Optimos India Reinforces Commitment to Responsible Work Practices and Employee Well-being

Dear All,

We are aware of recent media reports raising concerns about extended working hours at Optimos India. We take these concerns seriously. Upholding the highest standards of integrity, transparency, and employee well-being is fundamental to who we are.

Optimos India has initiated an immediate and thorough review of the matter, including work practices and oversight mechanisms, to ensure alignment with our policies and values. We are working swiftly to identify any gaps and implement corrective actions that are both meaningful and sustainable.

Our topmost priority remains clear: to act responsibly, maintain the trust of our clients, employees, and stakeholders, and uphold the values that define Optimos India. We will continue to engage transparently as we take these steps.

Optimos India remains committed to operating with integrity, creating long-term value for clients, and fostering a culture of accountability.
